"Monthly News You Can Count On"

The plan:

Due to spring break and a very busy last week of March, this month's newsletter is very short. Please note the dates of all the upcoming events and please plan to attend those you can.

Upcoming Events:

- Wednesday, Mar 24, FASt Talk
Denison's own Jake Tawney, '00, will dazzle us with juggling and mathematics in his talk, HOW JUGGLING EARNED ME A MASTERS OF MATHEMATICS.
- Thursday, Mar 25, Student Talk
At 12:30, in Olin 114, Joe Gallian of Minnesota—Duluth will present BREAKING DRIVERS' LICENSE CODES. Joe is an enthusiastic speaker and this talk is especially geared towards students.
- Thursday, Mar 25, General Talk
At 4:30, in the Burton Morgan Lecture Hall, Joe Gallian will deliver HOW TO COMMUNICATE YOUR RESEARCH. This talk is especially useful for students interested in summer research or presenting talks at meetings.
- Friday, Mar 26, MAA Meeting
Dr. Ludwig and Dr. Neal will take 9 Denison students to present at the MAA Spring Conference at the University of Cincinnati.
- Saturday, Mar 27, Prog. Contest
Wish luck to Denison students competing in the Carnegie Mellon Spring Programming Contest.
- Wednesday, Apr 7, FASt Talk & Annual Department Awards
Dr. Michael Radmacher of Kenyon College will present, PREDICTING PATIENT OUTCOME AND EVERYTHING ELSE) WITH DNA MICROARRAYS: THE PROMISE AND THE PITFALLS. Before the talk, the ANNUAL DEPARTMENT AWARDS will be presented to the outstanding students in the department.
- CONGRATULATIONS!
Be sure to congratulate Dr. Hutson on the birth of William (Will) Dallas Hutson, 7 lbs. 3 oz., 20 inches.
