

Mathematical Modeling Process

Validate solution	Formulate mathematical model	Define questions of interest	Make simplifying assumptions	Draw appropriate conclusions	Solve mathematical problem	Communicate results	Determine or estimate parameters	Identify governing principles	Identify variables and parameters	Select appropriate math tools
-------------------	------------------------------	------------------------------	------------------------------	------------------------------	----------------------------	---------------------	----------------------------------	-------------------------------	-----------------------------------	-------------------------------