Medical Conditions That May Affect Room Assignment:

Please check if you believe that you will need a living environment that can accommodate a disability or medical condition for you or a family member's special physical need. Examples of such accommodations may include: first floor room; to live in close proximity to a kitchen and/or bathroom or to have an air conditioning unit in your room. In order to request a special accommodation, you must submit the Medical Request Form provided in a separate mailing (addressed to parents) to the Health Center no later than July 2, 2012. You may also locate these forms at the addresses listed below. Requests must include physician's written documentation, including date of diagnosis, severity of diagnosis, current treatment plan and how a requested housing accommodation fits with the treatment plan. If you have a chronic disease or condition it is strongly advised that you supply supporting medical records to provide continuity of care.

I agree to abide by the rules and regulations as stated in the Denison University Handbook and the Residence Agreement - <http://www.denison.edu/offices/residentiallife>. I realize that if at any time, my room is not filled to capacity; a student(s) may be assigned to the available space. I realize that I may not move out of or have another student move into my room without first receiving permission from the Office of Residential Education and Housing. I also understand that the University has the right to remove me from housing if my conduct is dangerous to myself and/or to other members of the Denison community. I am aware that specific housing placements cannot be guaranteed. I authorize the University to provide information about me (including my name, address, telephone number and e-mail address) to my new roommate(s).

BY SIGNING THIS FORM, I AGREE TO THE ABOVE STATEMENT AND CONFIRM THAT I COMPLETED THIS FORM MYSELF AND THAT MY ANSWERS ARE TRUTHFUL AND ACCURATE.

Student Signature: _____

Date: _____

We will do our best to honor your requests and preferences. However, that is not always possible because of space availability and competing interests. Thank you for your input!

Please use the space below to describe yourself and the relationship you envision with your roommate. We ask that you be specific in your answers to aid our office in matching you with a compatible roommate. Some prompts to consider include:

General Information:

- What excites you about college?
- What concerns you about college?
- What goals do you have for college?

Living with Others:

- Have you shared a room/living space with others?
- If so, what has that experience been like for you?
- What expectations do you have of your roommate (i.e., relationship, approachability, etc....)?
- College is a time where you learn about living with people with different lifestyles and experiences. What might you contribute to this dynamic?
- What do you consider your most important value(s) when living with others? How might you go about living with someone who has different values from you?
- Do you prefer surrounding yourself with others, being alone, or somewhere in the middle?

Using the prompts from above, please write legibly or type the information (use the back as needed).
