Dear Denison Student,

Welcome! We are excited about what you bring to our campus. Whether you are religious, spiritual, or consider yourself to be neither, we would like to hear from you.

Students at Denison come from many different perspectives, traditions and backgrounds. We celebrate and offer opportunities to observe all of them on campus. Whether you are interested in continuing to go deeper into your own spirituality or religious tradition or want to dialogue and learn about others (one of the great things about college!), opportunities are here for you.

At the bottom of this letter is a brief religious background and interest survey. This information helps us shape the religious programs to be responsive to your interests in the best possible way. Please take a few minutes to complete this form and return it to us in Religious Life. You may mail the form to us or submit it on the Religious Life website at www.denison.edu/offices/religiouslife.

Please make some time when you are on campus to visit our office and sit in our cool lounge, indulge in some complimentary (fairly traded) hot coffee or tea, and say hello to anyone on our staff! We are excited to meet you. All the best for a great year!

Mark R. Orten
Director of Religious Life and University Chaplain
