

A Cross - Stitches. A Joint Exhibition of the Granville Museum Consortium

Indigo & Cotton: Chinese Blue and White Cross-Stitch in the Denison Museum Collection

The Denison Museum
June 5 - August 10

Made of indigo thread on ivory cotton and linen and influenced, in part, by Euroamerican contact, these exquisite works of folk art were created by the women of rural China for daily use during the late 19th - early 20th centuries. Dr. Daniel Sheets Dye collected the striking cross-stitch pieces during his 41 years in China and donated them as part of a larger Chinese collection in the 1970's.

Saturday, July 11

Denison Museum Book Club
10:30 a.m., Buxton Inn

♣ Summer Book Selection:
The Bowl is Already Broken,
